

French Elegance Tucked Away at Dole Cannery

Chocolate lovers unite! I had a chance to preview the gorgeous customized Valentine's Day boxes being prepared at Padovani's Chocolates, on the second floor of The Shops at Dole Cannery. The way to every woman's heart, an exquisite pairing of jewelry and glossy hand-made chocolates in gift boxes ... talk about romantic!

I've stopped by Padovani's for their equally luscious lattes and caramel macchiatos whenever I'm in the neighborhood (which will soon be every day when I start writing in the Castle & Cooke tower). These are chocolates as works of art. Hard to believe that I, a confirmed Francophile, survived eight years on Oahu without realizing such a treasure existed.
